ENG 567 Grammar and the Teaching of Grammar
ENG 56701 (3 Credits)
Meeting Dates: 5:00-6:20 PM Tuesdays & Thursdays, August 31—December 18 in Murphy 109

Course Description: This course will challenge the negative perception many students have toward the study of grammar by unlocking the secrets hidden in the structure of the English language. After learning how to identify the basic building blocks of human communication, we will prove that all dialects of English are equal in their ability to transfer information. At the end of this course, students will be able to teach native and non-native speakers how information is transferred from speaker/writer to listener/reader in English.
Instructor: Dr. Elizabeth Canon, MWSU Professor of English

A note from the MWSU Business Office:
If a student registers between July 5 and August 6, 2015 tuition and fees must be paid or payment arrangement must be made by August 7, 2015. Students registering after August 6th must pay or make payment arrangement for tuition and fees at time of enrollment. Failure to pay your account in full or enroll in the payment plan by the due date will result in a late fee of $100. It is the responsibility of the student to notify the Registrar’s Office in writing, if attendance plans change. Failure to do so will result in the student being assessed grades for all courses and full financial obligation for tuition and fees.
